The Daily Courant.

Monday, December 22. 1718.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated Dec. 27.

Vienna, December 14.

THE Emperour has declared the Count de Proskau Vice-President of Sileſia, one of his Privy-Council. The Archbiſhop of Saltzburg has taken his Leave of the Emperour, and will return home to Morrow. 'Tis ſaid that while he tarried here, it was fully reſolv'd to raiſe the Biſhoprick of this City to a Metropolitical See. A Diſpute is ariſen between the Turkiſh Commiſſary and ours, concerning a little Iſland lying in the River Drino, but it is of no great Importance, and will ſoon be made up. The Miniſters of the Italian Princes very much ſollicite our Court, that their Principals may be exempted from Contributions towards the Spaniſh War.

From the Haerlem Courant.

Hamburgh, Dec. 23. According to the Letters from Warſaw, it ſeems as if the King of Poland would in a few Days go from thence to Dreſden; the ſame Letters add, that 'tis apprehended there will be great Diſorders between the Poles and the Ruſſians this Winter, the former having in ſeveral Places fallen upon the latter in thoſe Quarters where they are but in ſmall Numbers, and having ſeiz'd the Men, have hung them up in their Regimental Cloaths; which has oblig'd the Ruſſians to draw cloſer together, and to be upon their Guard Night and Day.

Hague, Dec. 27. 'The Marquis de 'Prié now ſpeaks publickly, that as for 'the new Treaty for the Barrier, all is 'adjuſted and regulated in a Manner ſo 'clear, that no Obſtacle can ariſe for the 'future in the Execution of it, ſo that the 'Signing it, which is now done, will ne'ceſſarily be follow'd by the Acceſſion of the 'State to the Quadruple Alliance. We 'know already, that the States have quitted 'by this new Convention many Pretenſions 'upon the Auſtrian Netherlands; but on 'the other ſide, they have preſerved by the 'ſaid Convention, the Limits on the Side 'of Flanders, that were ſtipulated by the 'firſt Barrier Treaty. The Deputy of Bru'ges who is ſtill here, would have proteſted 'in a Memorial, againſt all Manner of Alie'nation of any Part of Flanders, but the 'Marquis de Prié would not admit of it.

'Letters from the States Conſul at Cadix 'mention, that Trade is in a very bad 'State at Mexico, by reaſon that the Eng'liſh Commiſſaries having received Ad'vice of the preſent Conjuncture of Affairs 'in Europe, have put off their Goods at 'any Price.

'The Swedes having begun to take with'out Diſtinction all the Dutch Ships they 'meet with at Sea, even thoſe which Navi'gate between Holland and Neutral Ports, 'the Dutch Reſident at Hamburgh has re'preſented to the States General, that two 'Frigates of Zealand of only 24 Guns each, 'but good Sailers, cruiſing on the Coaſt, 'may be able to ſecure the Navigation from 'all Inſult from the Swedes. This Repre'ſentation is committed to the Colleges of 'the Admiralty, for them to make a Re'port.

'Tis talk'd that Prince Kurakin will ſoon 'be recall'd, and that young Prince Dolho'rucky, who has been here for ſome Weeks 'paſt, will ſucceed him, he having already 'furniſh'd himſelf with magnificent Equi'pages.

From the Hague Courant, dated Dec. 28.

Hague, Dec. 27. This Morning the Baron Wynbergen of Guelderland, and M. Vander Goes Lord of Naters of Holland, being deputed by the Aſſembly of the States-General, waited upon the Marquis de Prié in the Name of their High Mightineſſes to take Leave of his Excellency, and 'tis believ'd he will depart this Evening or to Morrow Morning for Rotterdam, in order to return to Bruſſels: The Heers Copieters and Nenny, and the Commiſſary at War Gruber, being this Day gone before. The Earl of Cadogan is alſo preparing to go for England, his Baggage being already ſent on board the Yacht that attends him.
